LOCAL MARKET.

This cold spell has sent the price of sweet potatoes another rung up the ladder, and this morning there was not over a bushel on market. Good prospects are in store for another sharp advance unless this weather lets up so the producer may go into his hothouse. The advanced price is not due to a scarcity; but if the hothouse is opened the temperature will drop several degrees and cause the potatoes to "sweat," which will ruin the finest in quick time. Despite the alarming price of $1.20 a bushel, the farmer prefers to let his crop remain safe from the cold.

Irish potatoes are selling for 70 cents a bushel, and there is plenty of the product. Apples and other fruits have taken a drop the past week.

—Your shrewd business competitors would be glad to see you spend a lot of money in any kind of "advertising" except newspaper advertising.

Official Meeting—Other Services
Yesterday.

Broadway Methodist.

There were three additions to the Broadway Methodist church yesterday, one by letter at the morning service and one by letter and one by baptism at night.

Dr. Sullivan preached the second of his series of sermons for young people on the Ten Commandments last evening. It was a forcible and thought-provoking presentation of the Second Commandment. These sermons are receiving much attention, the large congregation of last night was a practical evidence.

The regular Wednesday night prayer service for this week of the Broadway Methodist church will be followed by the quarterly conference meeting to be held by the Rev. J. W. Blackard, presiding elder. The conference was postponed from last Thursday night on account of the illness from grip of both Dr. Blackard and the Rev. G. T. Sullivan, the pastor.

The Methodist ministers of the city will hold their regular semi-monthly meeting tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in the study of the pastor of the Broadway Methodist church.

The association salesmen have been very active and 31 hogheads were sold at prices ranging from 7 to 9 1/2 cents for lugs, up to 13 1/2 cents for good medium leaf. ## Thaw at Matewan.

Matewan, N. Y., Feb. 3.—Harry K. Thaw began today the routine of a simple life which the authorities at the state hospital for the criminal insane say will make his long stay in the Tombs prison in New York city seem like the height of gaiety in comparison. The new patient in the observation ward slept soundly last night, the presence of the fifty other men in the dormitory not giving him the slightest concern.
